

ELDER WISDOM ACADEMY

ancient practice - new understanding

ELDER WISDOM SHABBAT

Feat. Ojibwe activist Sharon Day

Friday, March 17
Shaw JCC of Akron

The Elder Wisdom Academy would like to invite you to an Elder Wisdom Shabbat featuring Ojibwe activist Sharon Day, hosted by Beth El Congregation. This event will take place at The Shaw JCC and will feature a service at Beth El Congregation, followed by a Kosher Shabbat dinner and a presentation by Ojibwe activist Sharon Day with an intergenerational engagement component.

Schedule: Friday, March 17

6:00pm – 7:00pm Beth El Service

7:00pm – 8:30pm Dinner and Speaker

Cost: $35/per person

To register, contact Alisa Reinbolt at areinbolt@shawjcc.org or 330-835-0027

Sharon Day is the founder and executive director of the Indigenous Peoples Task Force and will speak about water awareness and the ceremonial tradition of Nibi, or Water Walks. Water Walks are focused on and implemented in faith: faith in the water spirits, faith in the earth, faith in humankind and faith in the power of love. Sharon has received numerous awards, including the Resourceful Woman Award and The National Native American AIDS Prevention Resource Center's Red Ribbon Award. She has been named among the 100 Best Loved Women by Yes! Magazine.

WHAT'S INSIDE THIS ISSUE:

Elder Wisdom Shabbat

Conversation Circle
3/23/23 @ 4:00PM
JCC Conference Room

Nancy Gardner
February Conversation
Circle Resources

March Conversation Circle

Marilyn Grodan

"The meaning of yahrzeit: the Jewish Way in death and mourning."

March 23rd @ 4:00 PM
JCC Conference Room
750 White Pond Dr.
Akron, OH 44320
Enter on the right side of building - bottom of stairs

February's Conversation Circle

Nancy Gardner

"Energize Your Day"

You can access her resources at:
www.ngenergy.us
330.945.5533 (landline)

"Knowledgeable about the body and gracious in inviting participants to use it: Nancy is great!" Rev. Elaine Strawn

"I was today's years old when I learned that the lymph system is activated with movement!" Jane Harkey

"A year from now, you will wish you had started today."
— Karen Lamb