

Universal Native American Sign Language

Group Role Play Rubric

Group Members: _____

Topic: _____

Category	3	2	1	Total
Content	Group did a fantastic job being creative in making their own role play. The group's role play is related to the given directions/ setting. Shows cooperation, conflict or compromise. All sign language was correctly used.	Roleplay correlates to the given directions/ settings. Shows cooperation, conflict, or compromise. Most of the sign language was used correctly.	Roleplay is completely off topic with no correlation to the given directions/ setting. Sign language was not correctly used. Students did not try to show cooperation, conflict or compromise in their scenario.
Roles	Awesome roles! Every member of the group stayed in character and took their roles seriously. Each student had a defined role.	Group roles were defined well. Students were aware of their characters. At least 1 student did not have a role or participate correctly.	Students did not have defined roles or stay in character. Looked like there was no preparation. 2 or more students did not have a role.
Preparation for Role Play	Students in the group listened to each other's ideas and were extremely respectful to one another. Students got along with each other. Everyone participated with a positive attitude.	All students participated and communicated with each other well in planning their role play. Had a reasonable time coming to agreements and making decisions.	Students did not get along. Only a few students were participating in the role play planning. Struggled to make decisions. Had to redirect multiple times.
De-briefing	Students answered questions about their role play appropriately after performing it. Made good connections to Native American culture.	Students answered questions about their role play appropriately after performing it. Made appropriate connections to Native American culture.	Students answered questions about their role play inappropriately after performing it or did not explain their role play at all. No appropriate connections to Native American culture.

Total Grade /12

Comments: